

Republic of Texas
County of Austin This day came G. Madison Before me an acting justice of the peace for the County aforesaid and maid oath that the above receipt for one bay mare valued to eighty dollars is just that he owes the government nothing on his own or in account of any other "i.e." nor hath Retained Sold or embezled any arms Munition of war or any other property whatever belong to the Republic of Texas or caused the same to have been done

I do, to this 11 day of Sept 1837

Robt. M. Neill W. Head

A.C.